As the fee for the service is for the creation of a piece that is improvised and recorded in the moment, and any music production services/edits & mastering are completed by Emma Paunil merely as a courtesy and for her own quality control, I agree to not request any edits, alterations, or changes made to the final product being sent to me, in its completion.
2. I understand that only the final product will be sent to me, and no forms of rough cuts will be shared.
3. I hereby agree to not hold Emma Paunil Music liable for any and all forms of disturbance (emotional, mental, physical, or otherwise), by participating in this service.
4. Emma Paunil reserves the right to refuse service to anyone, should she deem the request, or any aspects of the request inappropriate, unsafe, or unethical; should she choose to choose to refuse the service, a refund will be issued, and the request will be canceled.
5. I understand that Emma Paunil Music will inform me of the timeline in which the finished work can be expected once she has begun the request. I understand that I will be guaranteed a finished project in a timely manner within 30 days, unless otherwise informed by Emma Paunil Music.

Should I elect to participate in allowing the song be shared via DISTRIBUTION (available for streaming services), by selecting the appropriate checkbox on the form, coupled with the signature via the same form, I understand and agree to the additional, following terms:

1. Emma Paunil Music reserves all rights, ownership, and any form of control over the musical works.
2. I understand that I am only able to elect to back out of the option for allowing the song to be distributed to music streaming platforms when I first receive the final song. Then and only then, may I elect to back out of the distribution option. Otherwise, I understand and agree that once the song has been officially published and distributed to streaming platforms, I may not request for it to be removed.

With my signature provided via the online form named above, or my legal guardians if I am under the age of 18, I hereby agree to all the following terms, conditions, and release from liability.
